BAD THINGS HAPPEN — Fan Fiction

We hear a fake retail ad for an Italian restaurant. Suddenly we hear the sound of radio interference. A geeky voice cuts through the static.

GEEK:	Greetings. I've hijacked the airwaves to bring you my fan fiction series entitled Hawking and Einstein's Adventures in Space and Time
	[German accent] Zee time machine is a success, Stephen Hawking. Vot should we do first?
SFX:	He hits a button to activate a Hawking-esque computer-generated voice that says "let's hunt dinosaurs."
ANNCR:	Bad things happen when geeks don't have internet. Switch to Internode and we'll connect you in as little as two hours.
LOGO:	Internode. No other network compares.
