Radio Script

We hear the sound of a busy supermarket checkout.

The checkout guy begins chatting to a customer.

M1: That's $41.20 thanks champ

M2: Just credit thanks

M1: Hey weren't you on the news last night?

M2: Ahhhh no, that was someone else.

M1: Nah it was you... You're the guy that got the whole street evacuated... right?

M2: Well... ahh not the whole street...

M1: (yelling) Hey everybody! the gas leak guy from the news is in checkout four! Hey Karen, the guy who sawed through the gas pipe is in checkout four!

(in the background we can hear people get excited, calling out 'hey Gas Leak Guy!' etc)

FVO: Get a kitchen installed without evacuating the neighbourhood.
We can help you plan, deliver and install your new kitchen.
IKEA, we've got kitchens covered.
