HOLIDAYS

Teacher VO: Ok....Bradley, tell the class about your holidays.

Bradley VO: Yeah it was really good. My dad built us a new funky kitchen. It's got wooden folk bench tops. And some stupid flipping soft closing drawers. There's a dishwasher, that was a real cow, and even a functioning breakfast bar. Mum thought Dad was a massive Cristo while he was building it.

Announcer VO: Get a kitchen installed without teaching your kids new words.

Announcer VO: Visit IKEA.com.au, we can plan, deliver and install the whole funky thing for you.
